

At www.crown-caps.net you can SEARCH:

You can enter in the search engine the brand of the piece you are looking for or some information (figures, text, graphics) or search in the index using the category, the country and the brand.

In your configuration, you can decide what you are looking for and what you are not interested in.

At www.crown-caps.net you can CLASSIFY:

Each of the classified pieces have the following image:

If you have it in your collection, mark the first box and it will turn green.

If they have it to exchange, mark the second box and it will turn green.

If you are not interested, mark the third box and a cross will appear.

If you are looking for it, mark the fourth box and a yellow star will appear.

In this way you will always know who has the pieces you are looking for or the ones you are missing, and you will show other subscribers your collection, what you are looking for and the pieces you want to exchange sorted by categories, countries and brands.
